The Mayan calendar has been a creative and effective vehicle for contemplating the energies of present times and the larger cycles of time that we are moving with and through. But there has also been a lot of misunderstanding, uncertainty, and even panic around the Mayan calendar. This conference is an opportunity to educate and prepare for the times we are in, and to rebirth a wisdom consciousness based in the natural rhythms of our planet. At “Wisdom from the Origins”, indigenous elders, social visionaries, ecologists, healers, philosophers and wisdom holders from around the world will join together to share prophecies and teachings from Mayan and other diverse cultures regarding the changing times which are now upon us.

Come listen and participate. Be a part of the change you seek in the world today.
