ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Dr. Rabbi Miriam Maron, Ph.D., B.S.N., R.N., M.A. is the author of the recently published book, “Ancient Moon Wisdom” as well as numerous scholarly articles and chapters in various anthologies on spiritual healing, chant and movement. She holds a doctorate in “Kabbalistic Healing,” a modality of emotional, physical and spiritual healing rooted in the ancient Hebraic Kabbalah Wisdom traditions, a venue which she integrates together with her conventional scientific/medical background. A member of the Institute For Integrative Medicine, and of Westside Health Practitioners, Dr. Maron has been active in this work for more than three decades and has lectured and conducted workshops on these modalities across the US, Canada, Central America, Europe and Israel, for anyone looking for personal healing and/or how to bring this unique eclectic skill set to their practice. Also initiated as a rabbi, Dr. Maron is a teacher in the tradition of her ancestors, whose clarity of vision and intuitive knowing wove the thread of fortitude and celebration that has inspired a people and its traditions for more than 4,000 years. She is an erudite scholar of both written and oral traditions, and a pioneer in restoring the long-neglected mystery wisdom of Shamanic Kabbalah, which she teaches in her seminars and workshops and practices in her private healing and mentoring sessions. Dr. Maron skillfully blends her knowledge and talent to formulate entrancing movement and dance which, along with her teachings, music, and ceremonies, have captivated and moved the hearts of audiences of all ages and cultural backgrounds across North and Central America, Europe, and Israel. ABOUT THE BOOK

Drawing from a rich treasury of ancient Kabbalistic mystery wisdom and her many years of experience as a spiritual healer and counselor, Dr. Maron introduces us to the remarkable interplay of the months of the yearly cycle with aboriginal tribal archetypes in the Hebraic tradition and their corresponding animal, mineral and plant totems. Here we will discover important life lessons from the histories and mythologies surrounding these archetypes and the deeper meanings behind each of their corresponding lunar cycles – all of which will prove helpful in our personal and interpersonal unfolding to bring more ease to our lives.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT IT

"A work of wisdom that takes the reader far beyond the reaches of the Moon into realms of deeper understanding about the archetypes that live and act within each of us." -- The late Rabbi Dr. Zalman M. Schachter-Shalomi, World Wisdom Chair Emeritus, Naropa University; Professor Emeritus, Temple University; author of From Ageing to Sageing and Spiritual Intimacy

"No exaggeration: this book is profound. I am still trying to figure out how the gifted author was able to be so warm and easy to read, and yet I feel like I learned something new or was reminded of something important in every single paragraph. Each year I select a book, buy a batch, and give them to my family and friends. No question: this is it." – Arthur Kurzweil, author of Kabbalah for Dummies, and From Generation to Generation: How to Trace Your Jewish Genealogy and Family History (Foreword by Elie Wiesel)

"An important resource and a significant contribution to universal theology, mythology, and mysticism." -- Dr. Steven J. Kaplan, Dean, Graduate Theological Institute

"Reveals a sophisticated shamanic Hebraic understanding of the subtle, living system of Hebrew astrology ... Because Rabbi Miriam is schooled in the aboriginal Hebraic tribal wisdom, she is able to offer penetrating insights into the wisdom of Hebraic astrology in a unique way that takes us beyond the traditional astrological understandings into the mystical realm of being in deeper relationship with the living planets, sun, moon and stars as the experience of the mysterious wisdom dance of the Divine in our lives. This book is a shamanic jewel that is well worth reading." – Gabriel Cousens, MD, author of The Rainbow Diet and Founder of Tree of Life Rejuvenation Center, Patagonia, AZ

"Daringly traverses the fathomless depths of early Hebraic mystery wisdom to bring to the surface the more aboriginal dimension of Judaism and its indigenous roots in the magic of our universe, particularly the universe of Stones, Plants, Animals, as well as Earth, Moon and Sun. Sources never before translated into the English vernacular abound throughout this masterful work, introducing both the novice and the scholar to realms of knowledge and understanding about the dance of Moon in her twelve, sometimes thirteen, rounds, and how these shifts in her choreography affect us consciously and unconsciously. Dr. Maron not only teaches us about the ancient tribal archetypes that the ancestors assigned to each month, but explains with refreshing clarity each their totems in ways that enable us to relate the wisdom of these archetypes and their personas to our own life struggles and celebrations. Finally, a book you will want to refer to again and again for practical guidance and insight as you walk the gauntlet of your life journey." – Dr. Gershon Winkler, author of Daily Kabbalah and Magic of the Ordinary: Recovering the Shamanic in Judaism
